

34th International Conference of
DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY COMMISSIONERS

Privacy and technology in balance

Geolocation

The Hungarian practice

Endre Győző Szabó

National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information

23th October 2012, Punta del Este

Organized by:

The technology

- GPS based
- GSM based
- Mobile Apps

Applicable law

- National / global standards
- Harmonised (general) rules in the EU
- National legislation
- No sector-specific rules exist

Requirements

- Consent of the data subject in general
- Proportionality
- Transparency
- Fairness
- Suitable to achieve the purpose
- Accurate, complete and updated data

Requirements in specific relationships

- Employees (cars, mobile phones; private use?)

Requirements in specific relationships

- Protection of children / elderly (just in case of direct compelling circumstances)

Requirements in specific relationships

- Logistics (generally acceptable; surveillance of objects / employees)

Requirements in specific relationships

- Prisoners (generally acceptable – reintegration into society?)

Requirements in specific relationships

- ...and me – user of a smart phone?
- Up to you – or someone else?

Thank you for your attention

Contact

*1125 Budapest - Hungary
Szilágyi Erzsébet fasor 22/C.*

00 36 1 39 11 404

ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu

www.naih.hu

Title of the slide